II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

4. This Court has jurisdiction of the parties and the subject matter of this action. Venue is proper as this civil action arises out of negligence acts and omissions committed in Jackson County, Mississippi, and the cause of action occurred and/or accrued in Jackson County, Mississippi.

III. FACTS

5. The Plaintiff adopts and herein incorporates by reference every allegation as set forth above.

6. At all times mentioned in this Complaint, the Defendant managed, leased, owned and/or operated the store located at 3911 Bienville Blvd, Ocean Springs, Mississippi.

7. On June 25, 2022, the Plaintiff was walking in the freezer aisle of the Defendant's store located at 3911 Bienville Blvd, Ocean Springs, Mississippi. While walking down the aisle, she slipped and fell in water leaking from the freezers. There were no caution signs to alert the Plaintiff to this dangerous condition. As a result of her fall, the Plaintiff sustained bodily injuries, including to her right knee, back, neck, and shoulder. The full extent of her injuries is currently unknown.

COUNT 1- PREMISES LIABILITY

8. Plaintiff realleges and reasserts the allegations contained within paragraphs one (1) through seven (7) as if fully set forth herein.

9. The Defendant, as owner and/or operator of the store, owed a duty to the Plaintiff to keep the premises in a reasonably safe condition, to warn the Plaintiff of any dangerous conditions not readily apparent of which it knew or should have known in the exercise of reasonable care, to conduct reasonable inspections to discover dangerous conditions existing on the premises, and to correct any such dangerous conditions.

Case: 30CI1:25-cv-00047-KM Document #: 2 Filed: 03/03/2025 Page 3 of 7

10. The Defendant as owner and or/operator breached these duties to Plaintiff by committing one or more of the following omissions or commissions:

- a) Negligently failing to address the water leaking from the freezer units in the freezer aisle, creating a hazard for customers, including Plaintiff, and resulting in an unreasonably unsafe condition for Plaintiff;
- b) Negligently failing to maintain or adequately maintain the freezer units and its surrounding area, causing water leakage that created a hazard to customers, including Plaintiff, and resulting in an unreasonably dangerous condition for Plaintiff;
- c) Negligently allowing water from the leaking freezers to accumulate on the floor of the freezer aisle, thereby creating a slip and fall hazard and an unreasonably dangerous condition for Plaintiff;
- d) Negligently failing to inspect or adequately inspect the freezer aisle and the freezer units for water leakage, thereby failing to recognize and mitigate the hazard posed to customers, including Plaintiff, and resulting in an unreasonably dangerous condition;
- e) Negligently failing to warn Plaintiff or other customers of the slip and fall hazard created by the water leakage from the freezer units when Defendant knew or should have known, through the exercise of reasonable care, that the premises were unreasonably dangerous and that Plaintiff was unaware of the same;
- f) Negligently failing to inspect or adequately inspect the freezer aisle for water leakage from the freezer units, creating an unreasonably dangerous condition for Plaintiff;
- g) Negligently failing to correct, inspect, maintain, or repair the water leakage from the freezer units and the resulting wet floor conditions when such conditions were known to Defendant or had existed for a sufficient period of time that Defendant should have known about them through reasonable care;
- h) Negligently failing to have adequate staff on duty and/or assigned to inspect, clean, and maintain the freezer aisle floors for hazards caused by water leakage from the freezer units;
- i) Negligently failing to train and/or inadequately training employees to identify, inspect, and address dangerous conditions, such as water leakage from the freezers, that could create slip and fall hazards in the freezer aisle;

Case: 30CI1:25-cv-00047-KM Document #: 2 Filed: 03/03/2025 Page 4 of 7

- j) Negligently failing to follow its own corporate policies regarding the identification and response to water leakage or other hazardous conditions in the freezer aisle;
- k) Negligently failing to have adequate policies in place to identify and address dangerous conditions, such as water leakage from the freezer units, that may have accumulated on the freezer aisle floor, despite prior knowledge of slip and fall incidents caused by similar hazardous conditions that were not timely identified, corrected, or for which customers were not warned;
- l) Negligently failing to act reasonably under the circumstances;
- m) Negligently engaging in a mode of operations when Defendant knew, or should have known, that said mode of operations would result in dangerous conditions to the general public, including the Plaintiff herein;
- n) Negligently engaging in routine or regular practice of business that was not the reasonable custom of the community; and
- o) Negligently failing to maintain and provide safe conditions within the subject premises.

COUNT II- NEGLIGENCE UNDER THE NON-DELEGABLE DUTY DOCTRINE

11. Plaintiff reasserts and realleges the allegations contained within paragraphs one (1) through ten (10) as if fully set forth herein.

12. At said time and place, Defendant owned, controlled, and/or possessed the business premises.

13. At said time and place, and by virtue of their ownership, control, and/or possession of the premises, Defendant owed Plaintiff a common law non-delegable duty to maintain the premises in a reasonably safe condition.

14. At said time and place, Defendant breached these duties to Plaintiff by committing one or more of the following omissions or commissions:

- a) Negligently failing to dry the floors of the restroom, which were wet from water flooding, thus creating a hazard to members of the public utilizing said premises, including Plaintiff herein, and creating an unreasonably unsafe condition for Plaintiff;

Case: 30CI1:25-cv-00047-KM Document #: 2 Filed: 03/03/2025 Page 5 of 7

- b) Negligently failing to maintain or adequately maintain the freezer units and its surrounding area, causing water leakage that created a hazard to customers, including Plaintiff, and resulting in an unreasonably dangerous condition for Plaintiff;
- c) Negligently allowing water from the leaking freezer to accumulate on the floor of the freezer aisle, thereby creating a slip and fall hazard and an unreasonably dangerous condition for Plaintiff;
- d) Negligently failing to inspect or adequately inspect the freezer aisle and the freezer units for water leakage, thereby failing to recognize and mitigate the hazard posed to customers, including Plaintiff, and resulting in an unreasonably dangerous condition;
- e) Negligently failing to warn Plaintiff or other customers of the slip and fall hazard created by the water leakage from the freezer units when Defendant knew or should have known, through the exercise of reasonable care, that the premises were unreasonably dangerous and that Plaintiff was unaware of the same;
- f) Negligently failing to inspect or adequately inspect the freezer aisle for water leakage from the freezer units, creating an unreasonably dangerous condition for Plaintiff;
- g) Negligently failing to correct, inspect, maintain, or repair the water leakage from the freezer units and the resulting wet floor conditions when such conditions were known to Defendant or had existed for a sufficient period of time that Defendant should have known about them through reasonable care;
- h) Negligently failing to have adequate staff on duty and/or assigned to inspect, clean, and maintain the freezer aisle floors for hazards caused by water leakage from the freezer units;
- i) Negligently failing to train and/or inadequately training employees to identify, inspect, and address dangerous conditions, such as water leakage from the freezers, that could create slip and fall hazards in the freezer aisle;
- j) Negligently failing to follow its own corporate policies regarding the identification and response to water leakage or other hazardous conditions in the freezer aisle;

CASE NO. 30CI1:25-CV-00047-KM

ANSWER

Defendant, Wal-Mart Stores East, L.P., (hereinafter “Wal-Mart”), answers Plaintiff’s Complaint as follows with each numbered paragraph corresponding to the numbered paragraphs of Plaintiff’s Complaint:

I. PARTIES

1. Wal-Mart is without knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief as to Plaintiff’s age or residency but admits the same at the present time.

2. Wal-Mart Stores East, L.P. admits it is a foreign limited partnership authorized to do business in Mississippi and may be served via its registered agent.

3. As this paragraph is directed towards fictitious parties, no response is necessary from Wal-Mart. Wal-Mart denies that its owners, operators, managers, other entities, corporate or individual, of Wal-Mart were negligent, or proximately caused or contributed to cause the “events and happenings” alleged in Plaintiff’s Complaint or Plaintiff’s alleged injuries or damages. Wal-Mart denies the remaining allegations of this paragraph and demands strict proof thereof.

II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

4. Wal-Mart admits that at the present time, this Court has jurisdiction and venue is proper. Wal-Mart denies that it committed “negligent acts or omissions” against Plaintiff, denies that its conduct was the proximate or contributing cause of this incident, and denies Plaintiff is entitled to any recovery in this matter.

III. FACTS

5. Wal-Mart re-alleges and incorporates by reference the foregoing paragraphs the same as though fully repeated herein.

6. Wal-Mart admits that at all times pertinent herein, it operated the premises in Hancock County, Mississippi, where this incident allegedly occurred. To the extent this paragraph implies or asserts allegations against Wal-Mart the same are denied and strict proof thereof is demanded.

7. Wal-Mart admits that on June 25, 2022, Plaintiff was present on its premises in Ocean Springs, Mississippi. Wal-Mart is without knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief as to the allegations concerning Plaintiff’s purpose for her presence at Wal-Mart, the allegations relating to the details of how this incident occurred, or Plaintiff’s alleged damages and, therefore, must deny the same and demand strict proof thereof. Wal-Mart denies the remaining allegations of this paragraph and demands strict proof thereof.

COUNT 1- PREMISES LIABILITY

8. Wal-Mart hereby adopts and incorporates by reference its responses to the preceding paragraphs the same as though fully stated herein.

9. Wal-Mart admits that the law imposes certain duties upon it as the operator of a retail establishment, which laws speak for themselves. Wal-Mart denies the remaining allegations of this paragraph and demands strict proof thereof.

10. Wal-Mart denies it breached any duty to Plaintiff, and specifically denies all allegations contained in subparts (a) through (o) and demands strict proof thereof. Wal-Mart denies the remaining allegations of this paragraph and demands strict proof thereof.

COUNT II- NEGLIGENCE UNDER NON-DELEGABLE DUTY DOCTRINE

11. Wal-Mart hereby adopts and incorporates by reference its responses to the preceding paragraphs the same as though fully stated herein.

12. Wal-Mart admits that at all times pertinent herein, it operated the premises in Ocean Springs, Mississippi, where this incident allegedly occurred. Wal-Mart denies the remaining allegations of this paragraph and demands strict proof thereof.

13. Wal-Mart admits that the law imposes certain duties upon it as the operator of a retail establishment, which laws speak for themselves. Wal-Mart denies the remaining allegations of this paragraph and demands strict proof thereof.

14. Wal-Mart denies it breached any duty owed to Plaintiff, and denies its conduct constituted negligence, and specifically denies all allegations contained in subparts (a) through (o) and demands strict proof thereof. Wal-Mart denies the remaining allegations of this paragraph and demands strict proof thereof.

15. Wal-Mart denies that its conduct was negligent and specifically denies all allegations contained in subparts (a) through (d) and demands strict proof thereof. Wal-Mart denies the remaining allegations of this paragraph and demands strict proof thereof.

16. Wal-Mart denies it breached any duty owed to Plaintiff, denies that its conduct was negligent, and denies its conduct was the direct and proximate cause or contributing cause of this alleged incident and demands strict proof thereof. Wal-Mart is without knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief as to the allegations concerning Plaintiff's medical condition or alleged injuries and, therefore, must deny the same, including the allegations in subparts (a) through (g), and demand strict proof thereof. Wal-Mart denies the remaining allegations of this paragraph and demands strict proof thereof.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Wal-Mart denies the allegations contained in the unnumbered paragraph following paragraph 16 which begins "WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED" and specifically denies that the Plaintiff is entitled to any recovery whatsoever.

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

1. Defendant denies each and every material allegation of Plaintiff's Complaint not otherwise addressed and demands strict proof thereof.
2. Plaintiff was guilty of negligence that caused or contributed to cause the injuries about which she complains.
3. The alleged hazard about which Plaintiff complains was open and obvious thereby obviating a duty to warn and precluding Plaintiff from recovering damages under Mississippi law.
4. Defendant did not have notice of the alleged hazard about which Plaintiff complains, and therefore, under Mississippi law, Defendant owed Plaintiff no duty to eliminate the alleged hazard.
5. No act or omissions of this Defendant was the proximate cause of any injury to Plaintiff.

6. Defendant owed Plaintiff no duty as alleged, the breach of which caused or contributed to the cause of the Plaintiff's injuries.

7. Plaintiff's injuries and damages were the result of an intervening and/or superseding cause; therefore, Plaintiff should not recover from Defendant.

8. Defendant respectfully demands credit for any and all monies paid to, or on behalf of, Plaintiff from any and all collateral sources.

9. Plaintiff, in whole or in part, failed to mitigate her alleged damages and, therefore, is precluded from recovery.

10. Plaintiff's alleged damages are the result of a condition and/or injury which predates the incident made the basis of her Complaint and having no causal relationship with this Defendant.

11. Plaintiff's Complaint fails to state a cause of action against Wal-Mart Stores East, LP upon which relief can be granted.

12. Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because she failed to undertake the precautions that a reasonably prudent person would take to protect against dangers which a reasonably careful person would reasonably appreciate under the same or similar circumstances.

13. Plaintiff assumed the risk associated with her actions and therefore her claims against this Defendant fails.

14. Plaintiff assumed the risk of conditions present and the dangers inherent therein.

15. Defendant reserves the right to add and/or supplement these affirmative defenses as discovery in this matter has not yet begun.

DEFENDANT DEMANDS TRIAL BY STRUCK JURY.
